Follow the layout and design suggested by ~~out~~
sketch observing these instructions:

The display appears a little crooked in the photograph. Be sure that the right side is straightened so that it runs on a line parallel with the right edge of the card as shown by the sketch. The display as well as the case should also be a little larger on the card than suggested by the sketch. The display and case should be proportionately enlarged to the size indicated by the pencil lines on the tissue overlay. Be sure that the case on which the display is mounted is reproduced in a faded effect so that it is no more distinct or apparent than suggested by the sketch.

~~RETEX~~ BRING OUT DETAILS AND LINES AS CLEAR AND SHARP AS POSSIBLE IN ~~REX~~ PICTURES
BOTH AT REAR OF LOBBY AND ABOVE BAR.

COLOR DESCRIPTION

SEE SKETCH AND MAKE THE FOLLOWING CORRECTIONS — The upper part of the side wall above the bar should be more of a yellow than the light tan that you have. And, on the lobby view the rug in the center of the floor should be more green — not the robins egg blue that you have. I presume some contrast should be made but believe your artist can fix this up in a shade of green that will do the job.

OTHERWISE FOLLOW BOTH TISSUE OVERLPS AND SKETCH FOR DETAILS OF RETOUCHING

COLOR DESCRIPTION

Color guide is a very poor attempt as to coloring and is only intended to give you an idea of the color of "British colonial Hotel in foreground. The little thin building at the left with brown roof is the swimming pool. Please note the water in the pool. Building in the back with red roof is government house. which we would like if possible to stand out. The other houses - roofs, trees and other foliage can be colored in the regular way.

Follow Layout Note the bronze tablet on the right corner. This bears the name as it appears on copy for message side of the card, though this will not likely be readable when reduced but an indication of it can be made.

The residence showing to the left they want eliminated. The photo was made in winter so the trees are bare. They of course prefer that foliage be shown, and I believe the tree in the foreground should be drawn smaller to give a better showing of the building proper. Customer suggested leaving to the artist's judgement about eliminating the auto that shows partially to the extreme right. I first suggested bringing in sky all the way down on either side but it might look better to show tree foliage just as it is and the part of the car that appears. as there is a parking space behind the building for hospital patients. There are no flowers — only shrubbery and grass in front and he doesn't want any artificiality added he says. The glass tile or masonry on either side of the extreme lower left window is of medium brown tint for some reason — but nothing was said of this and will leave to artist if he thinks better can show brown or make it harmonize with rest of glass tile — I believe would look better to show all of it opaque.

The building is of cream brick just about the same shade as that of the Mc Allister Hotel card attached, except the front part above and to either side of the entrance proper is composed of grayish cement stone which should be tinted about the same as the enclosed card of Halliburton's display and sales room.

Follow Layout 1. The bottles, etc. should be brought out in better detail and look a little more like whiskey and gin bottles rather than bottles of capsup -- a little variety in the coloring should help. 2. The glasses can be brought out better than on this sketch. 3. It looks like a couple of rags on the bar. Take out these spots and square up this drain board. 4. These are ROUND glass balls on the top of this rail -- just the same as the glass balls between the bars immediately beneath.

THE ABOVE NUMBERS CORRESPOND WITH THE NOS. ON TISSUE OVERLAY OF SKETCH.
OTHERWISE FOLLOW SKETCH FOR DESIGN.

COLOR DESCRIPTION

4. You will recall that I had you change the color of the red top stools -- The stools are all right as shown but this reflection looks like the former red.

EXCEPT FOR THE ABOVE FOLLOW SKETCH FOR COLORS.

Lighten up the brown lines or trimming on the walls and picture frames.
Customer is still harping on the "soft", rich colors -- an atmosphere of fineness and don't like the contrast on these walls.
